VOTE CAST

Polls Despite the Absence of Opposition.

Yesterday was election day, and, despite the absence of serious opposition ceived, are that a vote of nearly three solved and on a new date, the second Tues-

the fourth Thursday in May.

"en members of the Board of Aldermen and the entire membership of the Common Council were elected, besides the Mayor, all of these having been noninsted and practically elected at the recent Democratic primary. Indeed, Captain Cariton McCarthy, the Democratic candidate fer Mayor, was the only Demecratic candidate who had any opposition, and that was so significant that it is hardly worthy of consideration. The opposition candidates for the mayoralty were Henry L. Rhodes, Socialist, and William E. Talley, neither of whom had made any canvass..

In the returns received, all of Clay inated and practically elected at the reand Lee Wards, two of the four in Madi-son, one of the three in Henry, one of in Marshall and none in Jefferson are re-ported, leaving two in Madison, two in Henry, three in Monroe, two in Marshall and four in Jefferson to be heard from. Here are the figures received from the precincts, from which reports were made:

First precinct, Clay Ward-McCarthy, 25: Rhodes, 1; Tailey, L. Vote for aldernea and councilmen, 226, with slight variations.

Mayor.

The unique political situation that has been disturbing the peace of mind of Barton Heights for several weeks resolved lized yesterday into a clean middle beneath huge billows of smoke that arose from the slowly burning paint and heavy timbers.

According to all accounts, the fire began on the third floor, where mixed paints were stored. Nobody was permitted to smoke in the place; no fires had been run during the day; not an had been run during the day; not an ounce of benzine, gasoline or any combustible material was in the house. At 7 P. M. the bookkeeper inspected the place, found everything all right, turned out the gas, and left the building. He was the last to go. At 10:00 P. M. an alarm was sounded, quickly followed by a second. Flames were spuring from the windows on the third floor. Five engines, Nos. 2, 3, 4, 7 and 9, and two trucks. Nos. 1 and 2, responded.

For the next two hours the efforts of the firemen were bent toward preventing the flames from spreading. They succeeded admirably.

An Old Building.

In the election, and the polls were early astir The total vote was 52; one of the remaining two was ill in bed and the other in Pennsylvania. By 7:30 A. M. 42 votes had been polled. The interest was intense, but there was no excitement.

The three councilmen elected are Rossmen. Mr. Starritt was not inclined to go into details last night, but he indicated that the vote was a great surprise. The fight in Barton Heights has attracted very considerable attention recently, chiefly on account of the very small electorate, due to the fact that so many falled to pay the poll taxes in time. At a meeting of citizens held some weeks ago there was a lively discussion, after which the Rose ticket was proclaim d as the choice of the people. Subsequently, on the solicitation of friends, Starritt came out for 'g-election.

Fairmount Election.

The election in Fairmount passed off quietly. The people turned out solidly for the ticket. The total number of votes cast was 37. The balloting was as a stream of the progress of the fire was slow, but stubborn. The building is one of the old. Subborn. The buil colors, oils, dry paint, etc., most of which was ruined. It was estimated last night that probably two-thirds of the stock was lost.

Fireman Injured

A fireman named J. H. Farsons, of truck company, No. 2, fell from a ladder and was painfully hurt. He suffered compound dislocation of his index and middle finger, and his left eye and his body were bruised.

The hose wagen, on its way to the fire, collided with a buggy containing two small negro boys, who were slightly hurt.

was made public here to-day. It approves the anti-Parker movement, and says:

"The argument made in favor of Judge Parker is not that he is in any way fitted for the position, because his fitness cannot possibly be ascertained without a knowledge of his views on public questions. The argument made by his friends is that he can win, and they base their belief on the fact that, as he has never said anything in connection with pending questions, he had no record that can be used against him. His virtues are purely negative, and his friends think it sufficient that the Democrats send him forth as a candidate, with the endorsement. 'We know nothing against him.'

"It is the first time, in recent years at least, that a man has been utged for so high a position on the ground that his opinions are unknown. Burely the Democrate party is in desperate straits if among all of its members it cannot find a trustworthy man who has ever been interested enough in public questions to give expression to his opinion. In the great contest between Democracy and plutocracy our party should take a positive and aggressive stand, and it should present a standard-hearer who will infuse courage and enthusiasm among the masses."

between the Rout and Tow families. The Routs live at Bedford, eight miles from Bryantsville, and the Tows are farmers, living near here. The Tows are relatives of the Tow family which participated in the bloody Tow-Bess feud some time ago. A free gravel road election was held here to-dgy and the village was crowded with farmers. There had been considerable drinking, and when the Rout brothers drove into town and passed the Tows, who were standing near the election booth trouble was looked for.

Five minutes after the Routs reached town to-day they were seen approaching the election booth. The Tow brothers stood about ten feet apart, awaiting the arrival of the Routs.

There is a dispute as to whether there were any words before the shooting began and it is also in doubt as to who fired the first shot. Each of the five men drew a revolver and each side advanced, all firing. The men were not fitteen feet apart when the firing cassed. On the ground the two Rout brothers and Milton Tow lay dead, James Tow was prostrate, fatally nurt, and Frank Tow, though able to stand, had a builet in his arm and apother in his side. None of the bystanders was struck, although more than twenty-five shots were freed.

NEW YORK. June 14.-Samuel M. Burbank, of Arisona, a retired merchant, attempted to kill himself to-day by outting his throat in a law office. He is now a prisoner in a hospital, charged with attempted suicide. His wound is slight.

Samuel M. Burbank is fifty-five years of age, and brother of Caleb A. Burbank, the residuary legatee of the late Ambrose Brockett Burbank, a millionaire, who died on January 17th last and for several months, up to the time of his death, was nursed by Samuel M. Burbank. Mr. Burbank is from Minnehaha, Arigate's Court to-day an order to show cause why Caleb A. Burbank should not not have made him the residuary legates. whether Samuel M. Burbank, as the con-stant companion of the testator, might know something about a later will. Whether these had ever reached the ears of Samuel M. Burbank and had an effect on his attempt to take his life to-day, or whether the attempt was made solely because his mind was Temporarily unbalanced, as a result of the long slege of nursing his uncle, is not known.

The disclosures in the affidayits on file indicate a very spirited contest on the part of the various pieces and nephews of the aged capitalist, who, in the will offered for probate, bequeathed the bulk of his estate to his nephew. Calob A. Burbank, a practicing lawyer in this city. The estate has been estimated at from $1,000,000 to $2,000,000, and among several minor bequests was one of $25,000 to William F. Burbank, a San Francisco banker, who refused to take aty part in the litigation over the will. William F. Burbank married the daughter of a-California millionare some years ago, and pesides his California interests, is pro-prietor of the Twin-City Daily Sentinei

JACKSON, Miss., June 11-Many delegates to the Democratic State convention, which will meet here to-morrow, arrived lodsy. There was some talk to-day of starting a presidential boom for Join Sharp William as a resident of this State, but Mr. Williams had discordinged anything of the kind, teiling his friends that he believes Parker is the man for the Democrats to nominate. Senator Money will oppose instructions, but he will not make a vigorous fight on the floor against instructions.

Will be a Gala Day.
